

A new member, or any person designated for appointment as a new member of the Board, is to be afforded the Board's and the staff's fullest measures of courtesy and cooperation. Board and staff shall make every feasible effort to assist the new member to become fully informed about the Board's functions, policies, procedures and problems.

1. In the interim between election or appointment and actually assuming office, the new member may be invited to attend all meetings and functions of the Board, including executive sessions, and is to receive all reports and communications normally sent to Board members.
2. The new member is to be provided with copies of all appropriate publications and aids, including the Board policy manual.
3. The Board president and members of central staff will also confer with the new member as necessary on special problems or concerns of an orientation manner.
