

The Board wishes to provide for the long-range real estate needs of the school district. The Board, however, does not wish to own property that has no value in its long-range plans. The Superintendent shall advise the Board when, in the Superintendent's judgment, land should be purchased or sold.

The Superintendent shall recommend, for Board approval, the manner in which money from the sale of school-owned real estate should be used in accordance with New York State statutes.