

The Board believes in supporting organizations whose purpose is the improvement of educational instruction. It is hoped that administrators and teachers will join such organizations and contribute to raising the standards of the profession.