

The operation of any section of Board policies not established by law or contract may be temporarily suspended by the Board at a regular or special meeting.